

Smile As You Serve

Two tales of enforced service in skirts, by boys born to be girls. In Buckhard the promising young Marketing Executive Mark, through the machinations of his wife and the boss, falls to become the new and lowly office girl, cuckolded by his wife, used and abused by the boss. In Those Who Must Rule, a student is taken into the she-male servitude she was born for by a black lesbian Domme who seduces his girlfriend, then he is sold on for use as a she-male good-time girl. In both stories they learn to love their role, or at least smile as they serve, despite the discomfort of being locked in a chastity cage, frequently tied up, used and abused.
