

The Female Quixote: or, The Adventures of Arabella

The Female Quixote; or, The Adventures of Arabella was a novel written by Charlotte Lennox imitating and parodying the ideas of Miguel de Cervantes Don Quixote. Published in 1752, two years after she wrote her first novel, The Life of Harriot Stuart, it was her best known and most celebrated work. It was approved by both Henry Fielding and Samuel Richardson, applauded by Samuel Johnson, and used as a model by Jane Austen for her famous work, Northanger Abbey. It has been called a burlesque, satirical harlequinade, and a depiction of the real power of females. While some dismissed Arabella as a coquette who simply used romance as a tool, Scott Paul Gordon said that she exercises immense power without any consciousness of doing so. Norma Clarke has ranked it with Clarissa, Tom Jones, and Roderick Random as one of the defining texts in the development of the novel in the eighteenth century. Charlotte Lennox, nee Ramsay (c. 1730 4 January 1804) was a Scottish author and poet. She is most remembered now as the author of The Female Quixote and for her association with Samuel Johnson, Joshua Reynolds, and Samuel Richardson, but she had a long career and wrote poetry, prose, and drama. OROONOKO PRESS is committed to making classic texts by pre-twentieth century authors available for a contemporary audience.
