

Asia Pacific Governance: From Crisis to Reform (Law, Ethics and Governance)

With half of the world's population now living in Asia, governments have had to balance the drive for economic success with the rapidly increasing demands on resources and services. Important questions are being asked about how governments can best legislate to account for the rapid demographic and technological changes in the region. Uniting esteemed academics and practitioners from the region, Asia Pacific Governance addresses many of these vital and critical questions.
